

Yá'at'ééh Teachers!

Are you looking for a professional development opportunity that is challenging, culturally responsive, and collaborative?

We are accepting applications for our 2022 Teacher Fellows

- Are you a fulltime, fully certified K-12 teacher in a grant, BIE, or public school on or bordering the Navajo Nation?
- Can you commit to 4 Saturdays & a 10-day summer residency in 2022?
- Are you seeking a challenging, but supportive opportunity to learn more about a content area, and write a curriculum unit to use in your classroom?
- Do you want to embed Diné culture and/or language within your curriculum?
- If you answered YES to these questions, you should apply now!

About DINÉ

The Diné Institute for Navajo Nation Educators (DINÉ) is a partnership between Northern Arizona University and schools on the Navajo Nation who are participating in the Yale National Initiative. The Institute provides innovative K-12 teacher professional development that elevates curricular rigor and strengthens culturally responsive teaching in public, BIE, and tribally-controlled schools across the Diné Nation.
